The company announced its ongoing support of the National Breast Cancer Foundation (NBCF) and its medical research initiatives in the treatment of Breast Cancer. For the month of October 2008, $1 from every tube sold of Jane Iredale's new In the Pink PureGloss™ for Lips will be donated to the NBCF giving women another reason to go pink in Spring. A new addition to the PureGloss™ for Lips range, In the Pink is a pout-worthy hue that adds shimmer by day and shine by night while conditioning and soothing. Unlike lip products that contain

Ingredients include Grape Seed Extract, Jojoba, Green tea Leaf extract, Pomegranate Extract and Ginger Root Extract. With the help of tingly mint and ginger flavours lips will be naturally plumped. Free of parabens, pthalates and FD&C dyes, In the Pink is the ultimate pure mineral gloss. In The Pink PureGloss for Lips retails for $36.
